VARDAMAN'S REPLY.

A special from Jackson, Miss., says: The State administration's reply to the strictures of the press and people in regard to the telegram sent by Governor Vardaman to President Francis was made public Saturday. The reply is in of the rates at present charged. the shape of a communication which is addressed to the editor of the Jackson Evening News, and which appeared in that paper Saturday. It is signed by Gerrard Harris, a warm personal friend of the governor, and around the State House it is generally understood that the communication is the administration's answer to the criticisms of the governor. The following is the communication.

"Editor News: It seems to me you are unduly severe in your condemnation of the message sent by Governor Vardaman to President Francis, of the exposition, relative to Theodore Roosevelt's their face value. gracious appreciation of the Mississippi exhibit and building.

exhibit and building.

"There was no discourtesy to President Francis. A calm perusal of the message shows that, but when Governor Vardaman thought of the desecrating spectacle of Theodore Roosevelt entering the replica of the home Jefferson Davis, that gentle old man whom he defamed, about whom he told deliberts contents. whom he told deliberate untruths in the poor old Mississipian, ex-President of the Confederacy, after being called by this same Roosevelt 'the arch traitor," chief repudiationist,' one of a 'brutal race,' ventured to call Roosevelt's attention in courteous terms to the glaring misstatement as to his being a 'repudi-ationist,' received a typerwritten communication, not even signed, not even addressed as an ordinary letter, as fol-

"I say, when Governor Vardaman re-called all this and thought of the blatant Roosevelt stamping through the rooms hallowed by the memories of the heart of the Confederacy, who, when feeble, weak, old and broken in heart and There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

"True, the Governor could have remained silent, but after Roosevelt has insulted the South by saying that the 'Southerners have a strong strain of bru-tality in their nature'; after dining with a 'nigger' as a wanton defiance to our traditions; after forcing another 'nigger' down the throats of the Charleston peo-E. Leadbeater & Sons, Special ple as collector and representative of the port; after punishing a whole commu-nity in this State for the lawless acts of a few men; after offering every malicious Goods Suitable for the wrong he could to our most illustrious citizen—the President of the Confed-acy—Roosevelt graciously consents to approve of our exhibit made at the exposition, through our Executive, are we to crawl to the feet of this arrant charlatan, and there lick the foot which has time and again spurned us!

"Not if the southern nature is unchanged. The Governor might have caroled joyfully over this distinguishing mark of immortality conferred upon us, and those who are 'ever ready to crook the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawing' would have cooed sweetly about his 'broad states-mauship,' and the 'material prosperity' which Teddy's dentiferous smile would confer upon us.

"A man who would defame an old man like Jefferson Davis is unworthy of respect; if he is shown his wrong, and refuses to right it, he merits contempt; f he piles Ossa on Pelion in the shape of further wrong, he is infamous. These things Theodore Roosevelt has done. He has repeatedly shown that he has no further use for us than he had for Jeffer-son Davis, and under the circumstances I do not believe it calls for a turning of the other cheek nor for the tossing of the ready cap in the air,' nor hanging loverlike upon his grin, and taking our moods therefrom, like Sweet Alice, who "Wept with delight when he gave her a smile,

And trembled with fear at his frown."
Governor Vardaman simply showed the resentment of an outraged people, who asking nothing, expecting nothing, deserving nothing, caring nothing now one way or the other, for Mr. Roosevelt's opinion, and want only to be let alone by him.

"Respectfully, "GARRAD HARRIS."
